Bio & Education

I graduated from Ursuline Academy in Dallas and then graduated from Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas with a BA in history. Following graduation, I began teaching and also began work on my masters degree. I completed my master of education at the University of Texas in Arlington. I taught for 15 years, then resigned in 2005 to stay-at-home with my two daughters. I returned to the classroom in August 2013, spending a year at Heritage High School. I am proud to have been a part of the staff and students that opened Independence High School!
