After you log in, go to opportunities & projects tab, and then click on "create new" to type your service hours. Fill in the necessary blanks and click submit.

Students who complete 100 hours of community service from June 1st of the summer prior to ninth grade through April 1 of their senior year will be recognized at graduation. This is an optional program. Colleges and Universities do look favorably on community service hours.

Check the academic handbook for rules regarding what constitutes community service. (For example: Babysitting for free or tutoring a friend does not count, but tutoring that is arranged through a school sponsored club (National Honor Society) will count.
