

Gregory Hayes

BAND DIRECTOR/FINE ARTS

hayesg@friscoisd.org | 469-633-5530
www.friscohsband.org

Bio & Education

Mr. Hayes has been teaching for over twenty years. He is in his seventh year as director of bands at Frisco High School. He also serves as the fine arts department chair. Under his direction, the band at Frisco High has earned six consecutive University Interscholastic League sweepstakes awards. The Frisco High Wind Ensemble is a 2010 and 2012 National Winner in the Mark of Excellence Wind Ensemble Project. Mr. Hayes is a graduate of the University of Kansas where he was a student of James Barnes, Robert Foster, Zuohuang Chen, and Scott Watson. Mr. Hayes is also a graduate of Dallas Theological Seminary where he was a student of Howard Hendricks, Ronald Allen, and John Hannah.

Course Taught

A1: Concert Band	B1: Department Chair/Instructional Coach
A2: Wind Ensemble Assist	B2: Symphonic Band Assist
A3: Wind Symphony Lead	B3: Instrumental Ensemble A Lead
A4: Conference/Middle School Consult	B4: Conference/Middle School Consult

Tutorials

Tutorials and lessons available before school on Monday's and after school Tuesday through Thursday. Tutorials and lessons are in the band hall. Friday times will become available at the conclusion of the Varsity football season.

Activities/Hobbies

I have traveled to and led groups multiple times to India, China, and throughout the United States.

"THE" Original
risco High School
2014-2015