Bio & Education

Although I am a Texas native, I grew up in Kansas. I attended the University of Missouri-GO MIZZOU! I got a BA in French and Japanese. I then went to Japan, where I taught high school for three years in a rural town, Nakajo. I returned to the US and got my Masters Degree at the University of Kansas in Educational Leadership, I am starting my 11th year teaching high school, following five years teaching at the University of Texas and two years teaching at the University of Kansas.
