

Tracy Bradstreet

FINE ARTS DEPARTMENT- CHOIR

bradstrt@friscoisd.org | 469-633-5535
www.friscochoir.com

Bio & Education

This is ninth year as director of the FHS Choral Program and my thirteenth year of teaching. I am originally from San Antonio where I attended Winston Churchill High School. I went on to attend Stephen F. Austin State University for my Bachelors in Music Education and Texas Women's University for my Masters in Music Education. While at SFASU, I performed in the A Cappella Choir, Madrigal Singers, and Opera Company and worked as a Music Theory tutor for two years.

Course Taught

A1: Men's Ensemble	B1: Conference
A2: Triple Trio	B2: Varsity Mixed Choir
A3: Varsity Women's Choir	B3: Women's Ensemble
A4: Conference	B4: Credit Recovery

Tutorials

Students may come to the choir room for tutorials any morning at 8:30 am or after school at 4:15 pm.

Activities/Hobbies

I live Prosper and have been married to my husband Andy, who is also a teacher, for over 11 years. My husband teaches Pre-AP and AP Biology at Prosper High School. We have a 6 year old daughter named Hailey and a 2 year old named Carter.

