

Gregory Hayes

FINE ARTS - BAND

hayesg@friscoisd.org | 469-633-5530

www.friscohsband.com

Bio & Education

Mr. Hayes has been teaching for over twenty years. He is in his sixth year as director of bands at Frisco High School. He also serves as the fine arts department chair. Under his direction, the band at Frisco High has earned five consecutive University Interscholastic League sweepstakes awards. The Frisco High Wind Ensemble is a 2010 and 2012 National Winner in the Mark of Excellence Wind Ensemble Project. Mr. Hayes is a graduate of the University of Kansas where he was a student of James Barnes, Robert Foster, Zuohuang Chen, and Scott Watson. Mr. Hayes is also a graduate of Dallas Theological Seminary.

Course Taught

A1: Concert Band
A2: Wind Ensemble Assist
A3: Wind Symphony
A4: Conference

B1: Instrumental Ensemble D
B2: Instrumental Ensemble C Assist
B3: Instrumental Ensemble A
B4: Conference

Tutorials

Before school 7:30 – 8:45 AM

In the Band Hall

Activities/Hobby

Mr. Hayes is an avid University of Kansas basketball fan, and is a member of a competitive USBC bowling league. Mr. Hayes enjoys travelling to China, India, and Europe.

Frisco High School
2013-2014