Bio & Education

My name is Jeff Harbert and this is my 10th year coaching and teaching, 9th in Frisco. I was born & raised in Tishomingo, OK. From there, I went on to Southeastern Oklahoma State University in Durant, OK, where I played football for the Savages. I graduated with my B.S. in Chemistry & Biology in 2003 & later earned my M. Ed. in Educational Technology in 2004. I have a beautiful wife named Krystle who teaches 1st grade at Nichols Elementary & I have two awesome boys, Coby (6) & Cruz (3).

Activities/Hobbies

I am a Christian, I attend Hope Fellowship, & I sponsor Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) here on campus.

I love spending time with my family. We like to read and we love watching movies. I also enjoy playing sports, especially basketball. Other hobbies include wakeboarding and water skiing, as well as snowboarding and snow skiing, although I don't get to do those as much as I would like.
