

Raccoon Rambler

December 5, 2014

Senior Bonfire:

Bonfire ticket sales will continue Monday and Tuesday during all lunch shifts. Tickets cost only $5.00 and get you access to all the planned activities. Remember that when you buy tickets, you are entered into prize drawings. Purchasing tickets on Monday receive 2 entries for prize drawings. Tickets bought on Tuesday to receive 1 entry. Some examples of the fabulous prizes are a dorm room refrigerator, Dallas Stars tickets, a Microsoft Surface tablet, and wireless headphones. The Bonfire is Wednesday, December 10th, from 7 to 11 p.m. at Storybrook Ranch in McKinney off of Custer Rd. and is less than 15 minutes from Frisco High School. There will be hayrides, Frito pie, water, soda, hot chocolate, a campfire for s'mores, a photo booth, a petting zoo, and a DJ. We hope to see you there!

Investing in the future

don't delay in getting you application started! Please note that new this year to the application, you will not be able to submit your application if missing any of the three required recommendations (you must have 2 teacher & 1 community recommendations).

Paws And Give Thanks:

The Frisco HS and Lone Star HS student chapters of USITT, United States Institute of Theatre Technology, has chosen Collin County Animal Services as it's charity to support this year. During the Thanksgiving break members of USITT raised non-monetary donations for the animal shelter. Keep in mind, that the shelter does not have it within their budget to purchase toys, treats or bedding. They were able to garner 5 dog beds and over $600 in food, litter, toys and treats.
