The debate team traveled to Melissa High School last weekend to compete in the Cardinal Winter Classic Debate Tournament.

Four students placed in multiple events. Josten Moreno placed 1st in Dramatic Interpretation and 3rd place Prose Interpretation. Harjot Sekhon placed 3rd in Domestic Extemporaneous Speaking and 6th in Persuasive Speaking. Pancham Shah placed 2nd in Domestic Extemporaneous Speaking and 3rd in Persuasive Speaking. Nedha Kinnare placed 5th in Poetry Interpretation. Lauren Olvera placed 2nd in Prose Interpretation. Daryus Dorabshaw placed 3rd in Humorous Interpretation and 6th in Prose Interpretation.

This is a preparation tournament for UIL districts. In poetry and prose, students choose pieces based on categories provided by UIL. They then cut the pieces, write an introduction, and present the poem or short story to the judge. They are judged on characterization, tone, body language, and overall presentation skills. The time limit is 7 minutes. For Dramatic and Humorous Interpretation, students choose any play that has been published, cut the piece in order to make it 10 minutes or less, write an introduction, and memorize the piece. They are judged on acting skills as well as their interpretation of the play. Way to go Raccoons!
