Frisco Rotary Club Honors FHS Students:

Frisco High School seniors Lexi Murphy and Matt Quejada were recently named Frisco Rotary Students of the Month for November. Lexi is involved in Best Buddies, National Honor Society, School Climate Committee, FISD Student Ambassador for the Olweus Committee, Varsity Choir, and Student Council. She also is Senior Class President of the Class of 2015.

"I am completely blessed by being recognized by the Frisco Rotary Club for my school and community involvement," Lexi said. Matt is involved in Wind Symphony, Jazz Band, Marching Band, National Honor Society, School Climate Committee, Superintendent's Student Advisory Council, Drumline Captain, a 6-year All Region Band Qualifier, and a member of the St.

Francis of Assisi Youth Church Band. He also is a National Hispanic Scholar and National Merit Commended Scholar. "It's cool because I know there are a lot of other students who could be chosen for this, but Mrs. Palacios chose me for this award," Matt said.

FHS Golfer Signs with Texas A&M:

Texas A&M men's golf head coach J.T. Higgins announced last Wednesday the signing of a trio of talented golfers who will join the program in the fall of 2015, one of which is our very own Brandon Smith! Brandon is rated as the No. 62 player in the country as well as No. 7 in Texas by Junior Golf Scoreboard. He was named the 2013 Texas Legends Junior Tour Player of the Year and is the two-time defending UIL district champion. This year he captured a pair of tournament wins in 2014 by topping the individual standings at the Hunter Mahan Invitational and the Legends Junior Tour Winter Invitational. Way to go Raccoon!
