

RESOURCES TO HELP PAY FOR COLLEGE

Scholarships

- www.scholarships.com
- Private database of >2,700,000 scholarship opportunities.
- www.careerinfonet.org/scholarshipsearch
- U.S. Department of Labor database of >5,000 scholarship opportunities.

Grants

- www.studentaid.ed.gov/types/grants-scholarships
- Also see the two websites listed under scholarships

Work-Study

- www.studentaid.ed.gov/types/work-study

Federal student loans

- www.studentaid.ed.gov/types/loans
- Perkins Loan: (up to $5,550 for undergraduates; up to $8,000 for graduates).
- Direct Subsidized Loan: $3,500 - $5,500 (undergraduates only).
- Direct Unsubsidized Loan: $5,500 - $20,500 (undergraduates only).
- Direct Plus Loan: Student's Cost of Attendance (COA) minus any other financial aid (for parent of dependent undergraduate students and for graduate or professional students).

Private student loans

- Consult with your school's Financial Aid Office, your financial advisor or your bank.