The Vandeventer Physical Education Department will be participating in the, "Watch Me (Whip-Nae Nae) Dance routine on Friday, September 11, 2015 in the VMS Gymnasium, from 3:35 pm.-4:00 p.m. Participating in this dance will allow the VMS Physical Education teachers an opportunity to highlight just a small part of the fun we have on a daily basis throughout our building between coaches, administrators, classroom teachers, as well as provide us the opportunity to display our awesome dance moves.

We will highlight the dance in a 3-5 minute video that demonstrates collaboration in action using cardio exercises combined with the actual dance routine. Since the video will be viewed worldwide, we would like permission to use your child's image in it.

Please note, we will not "provide personally identifiable information about the Entrant or any other person, such as last name, address, phone number, email address or any other contact information". However, we do identify our school name, our city and state in the video.

Not only will the video be available online, but we plan to promote our entry through Facebook, Twitter, and the school web site. We will be sure to let you know where you can view this awesome video!
