

Mock Trial

1 Credit 11th-12th

Repeat Enrollment Not Allowed

This course is designed to foster a better understanding of the civil and criminal trial process through simulation and the study of actual as well as fictitious crimes. Students will simulate every level of trial from pretrial matters, opening/closing arguments, direct questioning, cross questioning, jury participation, and sentencing.

Lab fee required.

